FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1909.

TWELVE PAGES.

THE Ohio legislature has enacted a law making Feb. 12, 1908, the one hundredth anniversary Lincoln's birth, a legal holiday.

ADJOURNMENT of the legislature March 12 is now certain. On Friday a recess was taken until Feb. 15 which will leave less than a month for the session to wrestle with legislative matters.

SENATOR DAVE TOD has proven to the General Assembly that he is a live one, has capacity for work and he is likely to be made a member of the committee to prepare alleged municipal rottenness in Cleveland and Cincinnati.

THE postoffice department will issue a stamp of special design to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln and same will be placed on sale shortly before Feb. 12. It will be the same size, shape and color as the regular issue.

BILLS have been introduced in the legislature fixing rates telephone companies may charge and compelling companies to make connections with one another when that service is demanded. But the big telephone interests will be well represented in Columbus and there is little likelihood of laws obnoxious to the telephone companies being passed.

A MEMBER of the legislature had the nerve last week to introduce a bill providing for paying each law maker six cents each way—to and from Columbus—twice a month. As railroads can charge only two cents a mile for carrying passengers this looks like a grab to secure by members of the assembly three times as much as they would have to pay.

Youngstown.

Just to think of two leading attorneys nearly coming to blows in court. But that is what happened the other day when Judge Arrel and E. H. Moore got into a wrangle over some papers in a case being tried. Friends stopped between the men and Moore told Arrel that only his age and gray hairs saved him, presumably meaning a thrashing. Youngstown Eagles will soon have a big reunion and banquet to which all neighboring lodges will be invited. Farmers coming to the city report country dirt roads in bad condition. Little Editor Blake was struck by a M. V. car Thursday night and had her skull fractured, making her recovery doubtful. Representative Anderson has introduced a bill in the house providing local option for Sunday base ball. An election may be called when 25 per cent of the electors petition for it. S. J. Dill, manager of the traction lines in Elmira, N. Y., and two New York capitalists, were in this city recently, and their visit to the office of the local traction company has given rise to a rumor of a big deal. Officers of the local company refuse to make any statement about the rumored deal. For some time there have been rumors about the effect that the local lines would be sold to New York men. Heman Hirschke, aged 23, was caught in the machinery at the Ohio plant Monday and wanted to death. Both feet were torn off and his skull fractured. The proposition to issue $225,000 in bonds to build a high school on the south side was defeated Tuesday by a large majority. All Rainey of this city was killed Monday while attempting to board a Lake Shore freight train at Brookfield. The question of building a workhouse in this county is being agitated. One-sixth of the prisoners in the Cleveland works are from this city.

Peach Hill.

JAN. 27.—Ela Baringer is nursing a sore leg. G. L. Frederick was a caller here Monday. J. F. Winans has returned home from a two weeks' visit in Greenville, Pa. Baringer & Cutting, operators of the Harding Coal & Lime Works, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Cutting now operates the plant. J. W. Bickinger is the owner of a new sign. Andy Meade of New Albany called on Ira Baird Tuesday. A strange dog passed through here Tuesday—most of course. Several from here attended H. J. Vail's sale Tuesday. Eon Baringer has purchased a horse and buggy. Noss Baringer takes a stroll into the woods at night with his coon dog but reports game scarce.

McGuiganisms.

San time, central time, eastern time for some and a hot time for others. Our David seems to be building a concrete foundation for political future. There is reason to believe that immigration from Italy to Youngstown will show signs of picking up. They want a snug little Mahoning between Girard and Niles, but what the women want in Youngstown on wednesday is an all-around McGuiganism. It is to be hoped that the seeds the congressmen send out for spring planting will be of better character than most of the radish seeds sold last year, which turned out all tops, like the devil's deal for the turnip.

Reduced Coal Prices.

I have reduced the price of coal at the Board for mine, partment of Canfield to be following: Runar: Screened coal, $1.20 a ton; top of mine and runar, $1.25 a ton; 1/2 size, $1.20 a ton; 3/4 size, $1.15 a ton; 1 size, $1.10 a ton.

VERY SENSATIONAL ADDRESS

An Illinois Congressman Attacks Judge Taft and Lawyer Cromwell.

Washington, Jan. 27.—A sensational and bitter attack on President-elect Taft, William Nelson Cromwell and President Obama of Panama by Mr. Rainey of Illinois was made in the house of representatives Tuesday. Mr. Rainey was unopposed in his charges of corruption and fraud. At the conclusion of his speech Messrs. Stevens of Minnesota and Kustermann of Wisconsin expressed their disapproval of his remarks and entered a defense of the accused.

The house passed a joint resolution making February 12, 1909, which marks the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, a legal holiday.

Senate.—A speech by Senator Davis of Arkansas, favoring legislation to prevent dealings by exchanges in "futures" in products of the soil, and a speech by Senator Cummins of Iowa against the passage of the postal savings bank bill were the features in the senate.

SHE WOULD END THE GAMBLING.

Wife's Conscience Aroused, But Action to Be Deferred.

"I think it's simply awful," said the first woman, "the way men remain away from home at night and risk their earnings at the game of poker. My husband is a perfect fiend about the game. One night he had three friends at our house and they played that horrid game until nearly half past three in the morning."

"My" exclaimed the other woman, the one with the SA plait waist. "And does he lose much money?"

"No-o," says the first one. "He hasn't really lost any money. In fact he's been winning a little bit. But then that doesn't make it right. I would be opposed to gambling, no matter how much he might win. And just as soon as my husband wins enough to finish paying for my clothes that I've picked out I'm going to make him stop it. If he doesn't I'll leave him. I just simply won't live with a man who's a gambler."

LAW ENFORCEMENT LEAGUE

IT SEEKS TO PREVENT SALES OF LIQUOR IN "DRY" COUNTIES.

A Belmont County Official Explains How League's Secret Service Men Work.

Columbus, O.—Beer substitutes were discussed Tuesday at the state law enforcement conference being held under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon league. Among those speaking were: Supt. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon league; Senator Rose, author of the county option bill; Prosecutor Cowen, of Belmont county; Judge Kinkaid, city solicitor of Marysville; Attorney Edward Kibler, of Newark; Attorney Charles Cary, of Millersburg; Attorney F. L. Russell, of Newcomerstown; William Brennan, mayor of Xenia; James White, mayor of Barnevillle; Judge Seward, of Newark; Judge Blair of Portsmouth, and Judge Donely of Coshocton. Last evening at a public meeting, Judge Blair of Portsmouth and Rev. P. A. Baker, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, spoke.

Prosecuting Attorney W. W. Cowen of Belmont county explained the methods of a well organized law enforcement league. A committeeman is appointed in each school district to look out for "bootleggers." These notify the precinct committeemen. In Belmont county there are 64 township workers. These men secretly work up the case, and lay it before the lawyers of the executive committee. With the help of the district and township committee, and secret agents, the case is finally drawn up and laid before the county prosecutor.
